

Press Release

Apeldoorn, March 15, 2024

344 words

Call for Applications: Transnational Access Fellowships 2024-2025

RESILIENCE, the European cross-disciplinary research infrastructure serving the study of religion, launches its third call for applications for Transnational Access Fellowships. The call will be open March 15 to May 1, 2024. Users will gain direct, fast, and effective access to the collections of leading research institutions and universities in Europe, guided by experts in the field.

Users of the Transnational Access (TNA) fellowships will gain direct and effective access, both physical and virtual, to the unique collections and expertise of leading research institutions and universities in Europe. In addition, a TNA stay guarantees faster access to resources, which means more effective use of research time. Each host institution offers a place to work and support in navigating physical and digital collections, while also providing locally tailored travel and accommodation tips, as well as additional benefits for the TNA user unique to the institution. Crucially, the TNA user will enjoy expert guidance provided by senior scholars from the host institution, incorporating valuable networking opportunities to the research visit.

TNA Hosts

TNA Hosts are RESILIENCE's coordinator FSCIRE (Bologna, IT), Archivio Generale Arcivescovile di Bologna, AAB (IT), Bar-Ilan University (Ramat Gan, IL)*, Bektashi World Center (Tirana, AL), CIRCSE (Milan, IT), J.A. Comenius Museum (Uherský Brod, CZ), KU Leuven (BE), mikado Library (Aachen, DE), New Georgian University (Poti, GE), Sofia University "St. Kliment Ohridski" (BG), Theological University of Apeldoorn (NL), University of Ljubljana, Faculty of Theology (SI), University of Münster (DE), University of Sarajevo (BIH), and Volos Academy for Theological Studies (GR). Together, these partners ensure that Christianity, Islam, and Jewish Studies as areas of research are represented.

Call for Applications

The call for is open from March 15 to May 1, 2024. Scholars at all career levels can apply for a short research visit to the host of their choice and on the conditions of that host during the academic year 2024-2025. Go here to read the call.

* In the present circumstances and until further notice, we cannot facilitate research visits at Bar-Ilan University via the TNA Programme.

Editorial notes

About

RESILIENCE is a European cross-disciplinary research infrastructure serving the study of religion in all academic fields. It connects research centers, data holders and services distributed all over Europe and creates new instruments and services for its scientific community. RESILIENCE entered the ESFRI Roadmap 2021 and has received funding from the European Commission for its Preparatory Phase (2022-2026).

ESFRI

ESFRI is the European Strategy Forum on Research Infrastructures. It is a strategic instrument to develop the scientific integration of Europe and to strengthen its international outreach. The ESFRI Roadmap is a key instrument through which the ESFRI Forum establishes long term European strategic planning for the development of Research Infrastructures.

RESILIENCE TNA Call for Applications

More detailed information on the RESILIENCE TNA Call for Applications can be found here [insert link].

RESILIENCE Consortium Partners

- Albanian University UFO (Tirana, AL)
- Bar-Ilan University (Ramat Gan, IL)
- École Pratique des Hautes Études (Paris, FR)
- Fondazione per le Scienze Religiose (Bologna, IT)
- Institut für Angewandte Informatik (Leipzig, DE)
- KU Leuven (BE)
- Sofia University "St. Kliment Ohridski" (BG)
- Theological University of Apeldoorn (NL)
- University of Münster (DE)
- University of Sarajevo (BIH)
- University of Warsaw (PL)
- Volos Academy for Theological Studies (GR)

Resources

Here you will find our logo, images etc.

Contact

Lieneke Timpers of KU Leuven, TNA Coordinator: lieneke.timpers@kuleuven.be